

THE NOT SO REGULAR CHRONICLE

ITCONTINGENCY LLC

THE MAY UPDATE

Hello All! Welcome back! Its been about a year since the warning and detection sides of our Simpliot system were fully integrated. So we felt as if it is the right time to reflect back on our progress since then.

In the side bar of this page, you will see how ITC has evolved and the key

These offices will have a short term duration if the team do not reach their sales goals, to preserve risk capital.

On the sales side, we have our first sales person on board, who has joined us from one of our customers, wanting to sell the system his organization had just purchased! We also have a sales leads generator that started working competitive advantages our company now has.

On the finance side, we are in the planning mode for the "B" round of financing. This up and coming round will concentrate on growth capital. The growth plan involves opening satellite offices across the US with exactly the same profile, targets and staffing.

with ITC. Our pipeline of business is growing at a fast pace and we feel confident that 2019 sales will easily exceed the million dollar mark. Of course a lot could happen that could make us miss that prediction, but we feel that estimate is conservative.

We have also launched our Google ads campaign and strengthened our social media presence to include Instagram (follow us @itcontingency) , Linkedin and Twitter. We also have a new toll free number which is (888) ITC IOTA (+1 888 482 4682) .
